Performed, choreographed and produced by Bianca
Song 'Cheiro Verde' by Barbatuques

This is a dance of moves, words, angles, frames and forces. It is a contrast between the grayness routine from the inside and the colours that are still intact outside. It is the simplicity of being able to just step outdoors but knowing you actually can't.

Falling
Directed, choreographed, composed, edited and performed by Seirian
Video by Lauren

As humans we have built so much and created more than we can ever comprehend. Have we outgrown ourselves?

*

Mosaic
Created, choreographed and performed by Katie
Guitar played by Tom

This abstract, contemporary piece examines what collaboration can look like in this period of isolation, where we can use technology to collaborate with ourselves when it becomes difficult to collaborate with others.

Ain't No Sunshine
Choreographed and performed by Dan
Video and editing by Dan
Originally created and filmed for Luca Silvestrini's Protein 'The Sun Inside'.
Song 'Ain't No Sunshine' performed by Dr. SaxLove (youtube.com/drsaxlove)

This piece explores the sunlight, how it creates shadows and how it enters into our homes.

Elevate
By Charley and Mario

This piece is about finding your way through life, trying to fight the struggles in order to chase your dreams.

God with us
Directed, choreographed and created by Ashlee
Filming by Jayden

A young woman learns that another black man has been murdered by the police and she feels distressed. Reminiscing on the deaths that have come before, sends her into a deep sorrow. Then, a bleep from her phone reminds her that God is still with us.

Collages
Performed by Ludmila
Composed by Louise

Do we only see what we want to see?
Every situation is lived under the light of our subjectivity, which is itself built by our experiences.
So, can anything ever be new? Or are we doomed to always see what would be a collage of our memories?

Meeting Password: day_73_of_lockdown
Choreographed by Maharu
Performed by Ryan, Alex, Seirian, Sarah, Jeff and Gerard
Song 'The Entertainer' performed by Scott Joplin

The umpteenth online meeting between 6 office workers on the 73rd day of lockdown in the UK.
In times like this when we all feel far from each other and are getting tired of only seeing people virtually... will we be able to send paper planes crossing the screens soon?
