We're hiring an Administrator!

China Plate is an independent producing studio based in Birmingham and working across the UK. We are an arts charity. We help people to make creative projects happen – from theatre shows, to audio anthologies, to bus stop galleries. You can read more about our work here.

At China Plate the Administrator works to support the smooth running of the company, helping to ensure that our team of Producers can make their projects happen. Our Administrator looks after our offices and office systems and supports our Executive Director with day-to-day financial and administrative tasks.

At China Plate, we want to work in ways that are inclusive, caring, and environmentally sustainable. Alongside our Executive Director, our Administrator also supports the whole team to embed these values into our work in practical and proactive ways.

This role would suit someone with a good attention to detail who enjoys organisation. You may also have a passion for working for a charity or within the arts. You'll be interested in the ways that companies are run, and how to manage a charity well. The role could be a good step towards a career in Administration, Finance, HR, or as a General Manager or Executive Director of a company.

It could be your first job, and we will provide training to support you if so. We also welcome more experienced candidates who may have had administrative roles in the past, or have qualifications in Administration, Finance, or Business Management, and who would enjoy working in a creative environment.

If you have any queries or would like to set up an informal chat about the role, please contact our Executive Director Chloe on chloe@chinplatetheatre.com

Our recruitment process is open to all, but we are particularly keen to hear from applicants who may have faced racism, discrimination and/or cultural barriers due to their ethnicity, disability or D/deafness, as these groups are currently underrepresented in our team and the wider theatre sector. The shortlisting and interview panel will include at least two members who may have faced racism, discrimination and/or cultural barriers due to their ethnicity, disability or D/deafness. China Plate supports the More than a Moment pledge, and as such is committed to a number of actions to support Black artists and theatre makers, especially in the Midlands

China Plate is a Disability Confident Committed employer and will guarantee interviews for disabled applicants who clearly demonstrate that they meet the essential criteria for the role. If you would like your application to be considered under this guaranteed interview scheme, please let us know at the time of applying. When we ask candidates to attend interviews, we will also ask if they have any access requirements they need in place in order to attend. We will not ask candidates about access requirements they would need in place to fulfil the role itself until we have offered the role to the successful candidate, but our Executive Director is available for conversations about access and adjustments at any point during the recruitment process if this would be helpful to you – please contact chloe@chinaplatetheatre.com if so.

How to Apply

To apply, please send a covering letter of no more than two sides of A4, or a video or audio recording of no more than 5 minutes, explaining:

- Why you are interested in the role
- How you fulfil the person specification
- Any other key experience you would like to tell us about relating to the responsibilities of the job

Please also include your CV, or a separate video or audio recording detailing your previous employment experience and any qualifications.

Please send your application to recruitment@chinaplatetheatre.com with the subject line Administrator Application by 2pm on 23rd September 2022.

Please also help us by completing an Equal Opportunities form using this link – <https://forms.gle/anukkrMGZdJsRXL8> – this data is anonymous and will be used to help us monitor who our job opportunities are reaching.

All candidates will be notified by phone or email to confirm whether they have been shortlisted. Interviews will be held in w/b 3rd October, at our Birmingham office.

If you are offered the role, we will ask you to provide two professional references we can contact. We will also need to confirm that the successful candidate has the right to work in the UK prior to contracting.

Data Protection

The information you provide in your application will be used by China Plate to create a shortlist for interviews and to inform our selection process). Applicant details will be held securely and access limited only to those involved in the recruitment process. Your application will be kept on file by China Plate for at least three months after the closing date and destroyed no later than twelve months after. Equal opportunities monitoring data will be anonymised at the point of submission and used to evaluate our recruitment processes. Submission of your application to China Plate Theatre indicates your consent to this.
