

Talking Birds presents
The OakMobile
Visual/Easy Read Guide

The OakMobile is a theatre on wheels.

It's called the OakMobile because it's shaped a bit like an acorn from an oak tree.

There are 3 actors who will look after you when you visit

When you are waiting to go in, you might be given an acorn on a stick to hold.

The acorn says how long it will be before you go inside

You go into the OakMobile up the ramp and through the curtain

Inside you will meet the Storyteller who wears a patchwork coat.

You can sit down on the grass, on a chair or stand up

There are stars that light up the inside of the OakMobile.

The Storyteller will tell you a story about Nature.

In the story, there are 4 Guardians of Nature.

They are: Fire, Water, Air and Earth.

Each Guardian lives in a jar

The jars go together like this

During the story, you will hear sound of of a Robin singing

With your help, Robin will finish the story

Afterwards, see if you can see Robin hiding anywhere! Here's a clue...

We look forward to meeting you in the OakMobile soon!
